Packaging Industry Future in India

- India with stable economic growth, changing demographics, changing life styles, increasing disposable income, etc. is creating enormous business opportunities for packaging intensive industries like: pharma, food, drinks, retail, FMCG, etc.
- India's per capita consumption of packaging is only 4.3kg whereas developing countries like China & Taiwan show about 6 kgs and 19 kgs respectively. This shows great potential for the packaging industry in India.
- Rapid urbanization and expected dramatic growth of Indian middle class population from 50 million to 583 million i.e. ten folds increase by 2025 will increase the overall consumption of packed products.
- The Indian retail market is the 5th largest retail destination globally and has been ranked 2nd most attractive emerging market for investments. Moreover, FDI in Multi Brand Retail will be a boon for the packaging industry in the coming years.
- There has been a rapid growth in consumer awareness about safety and health related issues which calls for the use of high technology packaging to protect the products to the best possible extent.
